Audience feedback: Hail Caesar!

23 people voted. The breakdown and comments are listed below.

'Excellent': 12 votes

- Great ending to what has been an excellent season of films! The Coens at their satirical best.
- Very entertaining & enjoyable. Wonderful satire of Hollywood, Religion... A great film to end with. Thank you!
- Most enjoyable at the second viewing & with an audience that appreciated the humour.
- Too many references – 2nd viewing required.
- Very entertaining. Good to have a laugh
- Gloriously wrong on so many levels. Hollywood excess with an intellectual spin!
- Very entertaining. More of the same for next season please.
- Wonderful fun. Does the vision and creativity of the Coen Brothers know no bounds?!!
- Terrific. Funny, absurd, love long to the movies. A great end to the season.
- Great fun.
- Full Marx!

'Very Good': 6 votes

- Very amusing – loved all the cinematic references!
- Extremely entertaining. Great film to finish the season with.
- Something of a spoof, unusual for Hollywood stuff. Clever & fascinating + reminiscent of so many
- Very entertaining – fab performances from Brolin and Clooney!
- A good laugh and a great film to end the season with.
- Marvellous. Must be the cleverest film makers in America.

'Good': 2 votes

- Very funny.
- Hah, hah, good film. Loved the Malibu house.

'Satisfactory': 2 votes

- I love Hollywood, Coen Bros., George Clooney, the style of the era but something didn't work/gel. Not sure why. Enjoyable but should have been better!
- Wasted on me – not my kind of humour!
But it's been a good season!

'Poor': 1 vote

- Boring and not funny. The Tales of Hoffman Boating song is not about women swimming.

Based on the above, the film had an overall score of 4.13.
