- Glad he got away! Feel good factor.
- A French 'Last of the summer wine'
- Good start to the season. Always enjoy a laugh!
- Funny and sweetly mad. Lovely story and great characters.
- I hope the rest of the season is as good. Gentle and sweet.
- Laika, the dog should receive an Oscar avet bone.
- Great start for the season.
- Great way to start the season – I grinned though out.
- Kaurismaki gets better and better – Vive la Resistance!
- Wonderful 'feel good' film to start the season. Enjoyed the atmosphere, the humour and the tardiness.
- A great start to the new season! Beautifully stylised – look out for The Fairy for similar 'colour and style'!
- What a beautiful Finnish film!!
- Pure Joy
- A vintage feel and a happy start to the season!
- Uplifting.
- The romantic characters (all underdogs) and wonderful anachronistic details, such as (slightly) out of date telephones and cars, made for a really fun film but one with a big emotional punch.
- Amusing, moving and thought provoking. A great start to the season.
- Charming. Nice gentle humour.
- Very enjoyable. Loved the story and little Bob!
- It was very cold and unpleasant – I stayed because the film was excellent.
- One of your very best choices.
- Excellent characterisation so entertaining and good music too.
- Thought provoking. Humbling. Wouldn't have missed it for anything.

- Really enjoyed this charming film.
- Quaint, entertaining.
- Good film to kick off with. Good pastiche – I wish I knew more of the 50s French cinema to really appreciate it.
- Off-beat and funny.
- Great characters. Nice feel good film.
- Surprised! I really enjoyed it.
- Great!

- Remarkable attention to detail and sweetly toned suspension of disbelief.
- Superb acting, interesting variety of pace – almost a silent film.
- 1940s meets 2012!? Delightfully simple.
