- A graphic film, very professional, I soon worked out the ending. Beautifully filmed.
- Excellent soundtrack.
- Baz Luhrmann directs 'The Darkness Tale'?
[I could just about read this comment and not sure that I've got the title correct]

'Very Good': 10 votes

- Get Carter, nothing!
- Riveting well done, a bit graphic.
- A little too violent for my liking but nonetheless enjoyable.
- Very well edited. Sounds a terrible thing to say but violent and funny! DRC cinema has a future.

- Very strong impression of the place. Put me right off going there.
- Good family entertainment! Excellent production values.
- Well made but not pleasant viewing.
- A bit graphic – was anyone alive by the end?
- It created a wonderful sense of the place. I liked the mix of dark humour along with all the elements of the gangster film.
- Exhausting.
- Acting excellent film well made but some of the violence (& sex) hard to believe.
- Realistically portrayed, photography excellent.

- Started well with a striking montage sequence setting the scene and character introductions, but became muddled later on under the weight of too many contrivances.
- Well done but grim.
- Such a poor country. Tragic. High body count!
- Film that thought it was Treasure of Sierra Madre but made a mess of it.
- Loads a 'plot' – all about Africa!

'Satisfactory': 1 vote

- Hard to know what to make of it – some parts I thought were macho rubbish other bits very good.

'Poor' [or just outright offended]!: 5 votes

- Awful
- I believe wine, women and sons.
- If a film is going to be excessively violent I'd like a warning.
- Sex and violence & more sex and violence! Why do we have to have so much of this? We will not renew our membership.
