

CHELMSFORD FILM CLUB

An Independent film society based in Chelmsford

Visit our website at:

www.chelmsford-filmclub.co.uk

Follow us on:

twitter.com/ChelmsfordFilmC

www.facebook.com/ChelmsfordFilmC

Audience feedback: Blue Ruin

17 people voted. The breakdown and comments are listed below.

'Excellent': 5 votes

- Really enjoyable, good job I don't mind the sight of blood!
- If that constitutes a 'popular' film and this is a departure from CFC's usual fare can we have more of the same. A pleasant change from some of the very earnest (and occasionally a little dull) films from more exotic climes.
- I thought this was a very interesting and good change in the program. It created a high level of tension and some very good performances.
- An American Straw Dogs.
- Good to have a thriller, and very well done too. More of this sort of cinema please.

'Very Good': 5 votes

- Dear oh dear! Not for single old ladies!
- Can you see how this [the response slip] was held so tightly in my sweaty palm? Gee, what was it all about? Wonderfully filmed with good scary soundtrack when adversary on the way. Loved the minimal dialogue and when they did talk, had terrible trouble understanding what was going on.
- Spooky, bloody!
- Style, photography, production excellent but violence too graphic for me although effective.

'Good': 2 votes

- Entertaining

'Satisfactory': 1 votes

- Well obviously MOT's don't apply in the Wild West. Not a realistic sense of narrative on humour and too much red blood.

'Poor': 4 votes

- A nasty, pointless film. Very difficult to know what was going on. The diction was so bad it needed subtitles. I hated it.
- Not my kinda film, sure someone must have enjoyed it. All violence and no substance.
- Poor storyline, unnecessarily violent display of blood. Bit of a waste of time really.

- Too bloodthirsty for my liking and not an inch of sympathy for any of the characters.

Based on the above, the film had an overall score of 3.52 / 5.