'Excellent': 20 votes

- What a preposterous ending! What superb music! What an excellent way to spend a cold January evening!
- Wow! Entrancing (though the new seats help).
- Slow to start, brutal in places – revenge was sweet.
- Even better 2nd time round! Stunning acting, fantastic music, intense drama, exciting all the way through.
- Great film – great acting, great photography, great intensity but extremely painful to watch!
- Excellent!
- Fabulous
- So good, I don't know what to write!
- Best film I have seen for a while, but hated the bullying, even recognising this was a key part of the story.
- We've all been there. Death to all tyrants.
- Really enjoyable, one of my favourites this year. Literally a toe tapper!
- Implausible, somewhat, but very exciting and well thought through, directed & [?]
- Fascinating character study, good music – and seats not bad either!
- Hugely involving.
- Amazing! Bravo
- The two leads were amazing. Excellent throughout.
- Great Jazz – super acting, and explored the theme of 'manipulation' in a fascinating way!
- Totally engrossing – what a performance from both conductor & drummer.
- Stirring, moving, emotional & thought provoking.
- Superb! Wonderful acting. A sad statement about our society – and the “winner takes all” mentality so highly prized by us.

'Very Good': 6 votes

- Very enjoyable, but rather contrived in places.
- Acting, Music – Superb
- Evil bastard!!
- Nice build of tension. Very well acted and an unusual storyline.
- Although not a Jazz fan I found myself empathising with the musicians

- Not to my taste

'Poor': 1 votes

- Nothing is quite so boring as a drum solo! A ridiculous film, totally unbelievable – too long.
