- Brilliant cinematography. Wonder what secrets about her father Estrella would have uncovered if Erice had continued the story

- Absorbing and moving! A study in storytelling

- Sad but well made film that seemed the right length after all. We didn't really need to know the events of the South.
- Beautifully haunting and powerfully evocative. Superb cinematography and control of lighting to rival Renaissance painting.
- Good to have a Spanish film.

- Intrigued to know where it was going, originally.
- Enjoyable, but how about an ending?? Just finished.

- Beautifully shot, but to what avail? I think one needed to have lived through the Spanish Civil War to fully appreciate it.

- 90 minutes too long! ☹️

Based on the above, the film had an overall score of 4.11.
