'Excellent': 19 votes

- Very enjoyable – Julian Dennison's performance was excellent. However, they must have been superb hunters – 5 months trekking through the wilderness and he managed to keep his weight up! Jonny Greenwood's score was excellent too.
- A great road movie/buddy movie, life affirming and very entertaining. Great music too.
- What a joy – funny, touching & great music!
- FANTASTIC FILM. I think this just overtook Toni Erdmann as my favourite film of the season!
- Exceptional!
- A clever twist on the road movie with a great soundtrack and a lot of laughs.
- A wonderful film. Funny, moving, unbelievable, yet truly human.
- Most entertaining & cheerful – we don't get much of that.
- A real feelgood film
- Like all of Taika Waititi's films, pretty daft at times, but at the same time original, funny, charming and hugely entertaining. Loved the nod to Thelma & Louise near the end!
- The Kiwis loved the film and so did I. The nearest we get to wackiness is Paddington 2
- Such a sweet & joyous film. Ricky Rocks!
- One of the best films I've seen
- Really enjoyed
- Brilliant... Best one yet!
- Lovely scenery & music. How wonderful to have had something to watch that had so many laughs, although a bit sad.

'Very Good': 5 votes

- Cops & robbers in the bush – funny. Beautiful landscapes.
- Refreshingly 'naïve' & enjoyable!
- What it lacked in finesse was more than compensated by warmth & humour.
- Original & excellent idea – well acted. Some poor continuity & lacked credibility here and there – but great entertainment!
