'Excellent': 11 votes

- Loved it!
- A beautiful film and as compassionate/humourful a portrayal of adolescent angst as I have seen in a long while; memorable!
- A worthy Best Picture Oscar contender. Brilliant central performance – The Shape of Daughter!
- Marvellous!
- The perils of growing from adolescence to nearly grown up, with all the heartache beautifully conveyed. A very life affirming film.
- Excellent performance and totally absorbing – made me feel 17 again!
- Unexpected and charming. Ronan is befooling.
- What more to say? Even better the 2nd time around. It is a script that will be quoted by other films in future.

'Very Good': 7 votes

- That was my wife and eldest daughter!
- All the characters absorbing and having some depth – wanting us to know more, especially about Miguel & his girlfriend!!

- Often visited territory but well done. Trump wouldn't like it.
- Not really my type of film, for all its obvious charm and wit.

'Satisfactory': 4 votes

- Shame about the ending – such a cliché... good in parts otherwise.
- Quirky. Got the angst of female teenagedom just right. Satisfying in that all loose ends tied.

'Poor': 0 votes
