- After his last 2 films a good return to the child-centric films Kore-eda excels at. Liked the way he built up a seemingly idyllic nuclear family unit and then shattered it completely.
- A lovely film – led you down one path & then turned everything on its head. Wonderful performances & the net effect of bureaucracy was what?
- Another finely crafted film that gives a different perspective of Japanese society.
- Thoroughly moving tale of an unconventional “family”. Brilliant twist in the end.
- Amazing film for the start of the film season for 2019/2020.
- Wonderful, absorbing film
- What a brilliant film to start the season.
- Absorbing film. Very well acted by all – such a complicated life they led.
- Really enjoyed. Lovely study of characters & situation that is not as it seems.
- Thoroughly absorbing characters – a marvellous conclusion!
- Wonderful.
