- Light-hearted look at a serious subject. The running joke of the musicians appearing on screen remained funny right up to the final frame. Is Benedikt Erlingsson single-handedly trying to kill off Spanish Tourism in Iceland?
- Loved it. Never seen a film where the background musicians appear when needed (the band and the 3 Ukrainian singers – brilliant!) Fantastic story – very relevant to the current awareness of climate catastrophe. Amazing ending; never knew what was going to happen next. Loved the alleged cousin connection.
- Feminist; funny; very enjoyable
- Very quirky! Enjoyable study of a woman meeting challenges in her life.
- A very enjoyable and uplifting film. I really liked the use of the musicians and Ukrainian singers.
- Icelandic comedy at its best! Inspiring film – thank you.
- Wonderfully realised 'fable' – all too true!
- A brilliantly whacky film. Loved it!
- Bonkers Icelandic joy!
- This is why I am a member of Film Club
- Just like in the football, Iceland continues to surprise. Brilliantly constructed.
- Worth second viewing

- Enjoyable/funny.
- Deliciously quirky and off beat; how would that trio fare on Britain's Got Talent?!
- Weirdly entertaining!
