Audience feedback: The Dead Don't Hurt

'Excellent': 5 votes

- Very measured, thoughtful drama – unusual for the Western genre. Excellent cinematography.
- Beautifully filmed, great score. The slow pace made for an enthralling film.
- Masterclass in acting – great choice of film!
- Another excellent presentation: makes me doubt I've seen a 'western' before – the complexity of the characters, the pace, the images and sound. Yet "why do men fight". Somewhere in there there's the prototype Mage and Donald!
- Beautifully paced, beautifully shot, beautifully played!

'Very Good': 2 votes

- Certainly, a slow-burner which got there in the end. Fortunately, the bad came to a bad end... possibly a film for the present American predicament.
- Didn't immediately follow the timeline!
