'Excellent': 5 votes

- Very entertaining and outrageous. I am sure everyone had great fun. Lovely use of colour, locations & fashion. The France of fantasy!
- Fun!
- Good fun. Lovely costumes and scenery.
- Pacey!

'Very Good': 8 votes

- Very amusing, a bit of light relief following April. The cinematography was excellent – the way it captured the feel of 30s cinema – even if the sexual politics were clearly 21st century.
- Great fun! Well adapted by Ozon
- The perfect antidote to the rest of this season: light, frothy, inconsequential, but great entertainment. Good to discover there were light moments even in the 1930's.
- A charming, frothy confection of a film, very stylistic and acted with great verve. Ideal viewing for the festive season!
- Cheerful. Made a change!
- A very funny period piece.
- Great fun!

'Good': 4 votes

- Enjoyable, and certainly a comedy.
- What a pleasant change to be not frightened, horrified, scared, bored. A nice bit of harmless fun.
- French slapstick, essentially. I felt it was a little too derivative to award top marks.
- An enjoyable romp.
