- The failure of Business to understand the principles of rural life – not everything revolves around maximising profit. Hana, as the face of innocence, was fascinating. Not sure about the enigmatic ending, though.
- Cinematically engaging & beautiful. But ultimately a bleak message for life under modern capitalism.
- Haunting. I enjoyed it in a strange way.

- Enjoyed scenery.
- Entrancing camerawork, very “slow burn”. Mystified by the film’s climax.
- Very peculiar! Will sit with me for a while. Would watch it again!

'Satisfactory': 3 votes

- Slow – Did it go into Wicker Man territory at the end?
- Very slow in places. Instinct – Politics
- Did not feel it quite worked. Very slow & not intriguing enough. Well acted, but the contrast between ‘pure’ country & stupid townies too simplistic.
